Peter – I have included you on this appointment without checking your schedule and availability – please join as your time allows.

Patrick and Sara will be in Ontario by 11-ish. Let's plan on meeting after lunch at the Water Board office. I was thinking that we could go through the past three years and have an unedited conversation of what worked and what didn't; and most importantly, how we can apply this experience to future projects. I have done something for internal purposes, but it'll be a good exercise to go through since we have the opportunity to meet face to face. We can also run through the presentation – but more importantly, be prepared to answer the types of questions that the audience and City Council may ask us.

We can break for an early dinner before the meeting – dinner is on me. I'll figure out what's in the area before hand and work out the details.
